

SCHOOL OF URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNING
University of the Philippines Diliman

Master of Science in Regional Development Planning (SPRING-Asia Program)
German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) Scholarship
Katolischer Akademischer Ausländer-Dienst (KAAD) Scholarship

Requirements for Admission

- A. Three sets of the following (one original and two photocopies)
1. Completed Application Form for the Master of Science in Regional Development Planning (SPRING-Asia). Applicants to SPRING-Asia must be 35 years old or younger.
 2. Completed German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) Application Form
Attachments:
 - Six (6) original copies of recent passport size colored photos
 - Curriculum Vitae including personal data, academic progress and related work experience
 - University certificate/diploma of bachelor's and graduate degrees (authenticated copy)
 - University issued official transcript of records and grades including explanation of grades
 - Two relevant letters of recommendation (professional and academic)
 - Official proof of English proficiency (TOEFL, IELTS) or certification of English as medium of instruction in college
 - Copy of A-level or high school certificate (authenticated copy)
 - Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) marriage contract for married women whose Transcript of Records reflects their maiden names
 - Motivation/Research statement
 - Two (2) recent referee's report from two (2) university professors (please see attached DAAD reference form)
 - Health certificate
 - List of publications, if any
 - Certificate of sponsoring agency for second year of the program/affidavit of support / bank statement
 3. Completed Katolischer Akademischer Ausländer-Dienst (KAAD) Application Form. Applicants must be from the Mindanao area, religious denomination or affiliation notwithstanding.
- B. Official receipt of application fee in the amount of Three Hundred Pesos (P300.00) paid to the U.P. Cashier's Office

Reminder: The following must be indicated in your Official Receipt:

SURP Application Fee for Graduate Program
Account No. 9238-884-951-005-439